

PAMELA BARON MAHONEY

UPLIFT BOARD MEMBER

Pamela Baron Mahoney brings a 50-year career in aging services to the UPLIFT board. In 2004 she was appointed the first full-time Director of Senior Services at Jewish Family and Children's Services (JFCS), a position held until August 2021. Her first assignment at JFCS was the implementation of a federal grant to develop naturally occurring retirement communities (NORCs) in Sarasota.

Over the years, Pam has provided leadership to introduce many age-related innovations into our community, including iTN (transportation for seniors) and initiatives that expanded community programs for caregivers and persons living with dementia. For her many commitments to older adults, Pam has been honored by the Senior Connection Center with a Claude Pepper award and a Bob Carter senior advocacy award from Senior Friendship Centers (SFC). Pam and husband Art are active in a number of local senior initiatives and volunteer activities. She currently serves on the SFC Board of Governors.
