

EMILE GAUVREAU

UPLIFT BOARD MEMBER

Mr. Gauvreau has an extensive history working with and for non-profit organizations both as a volunteer board member and as professional staff. He had a 30+ year career in the health care industry where he served clients ranging from small start-up non-profit organizations to serving as the CEO of a $50 million non-profit medical organization. During this time, he also served on a number of association and community boards.

In 2002 he began a transition out of health care into forming and operating real estate investment partnerships that were involved in buying and refurbishing apartment complexes. Simultaneously, he also became an ordained minister and in 2008 took over the responsibilities of senior minister of the Center for Spiritual Living Cape Coral in SW Florida where he served until 2016.

Mr. Gauvreau's most recent board experience includes 10 years as the Board Vice President of the Science of Mind Foundation based in Golden, CO. He also has served as the Board President of Open Path Retreat Center since 2017. Mr. Gauvreau has a multi-disciplinary Masters degree from the UCLA Schools of Public Health and Management. He also has a Masters degree from the University of Transformation and Spiritual Leadership in Los Angeles, CA.
